

Sultans of String:

discover a SYMPHONY of world music

"The Sultans' sound is fresh, exotic and entrancing, and the orchestral arrangements are absolutely first class. A huge success!"

John Morris Russell, Cincinnati Pops Orchestra

Pops Show

These JUNO Award Nominees (Canada's Grammys) thrill their audiences with a global sonic tapestry of Spanish Flamenco, Arabic folk, Cuban rhythms, East Coast Celtic, and Gypsy-jazz in a celebration of musical fusion and human creativity infused with warmth and virtuosity. Fiery violin dances with rumba-flamenco guitar while bass lays down unstoppable grooves. Acoustic mastery meets with a symphony of sound, deepened by world rhythms that inspire whole audiences to get up and dance.

Sultans of String's Pops show was developed under the direction of luminary John Morris Russell (Cincinnati Pops). They have been performing non-stop with orchestras including Kingfield Pops, Edmonton, Vancouver, & Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Sultans of String have appeared at Celtic Connections (U.K.), Birdland Jazz Club in NYC, BBC TV, NPR, and have sold out Toronto's Koerner Hall.
